

Many appraisers, like yourself, are frustrated with the amount of time required to complete an assignment. Between visiting the property; compiling the information; researching the comps and creating the reports, you are probably overwhelmed with paperwork, just like your colleagues. Although you would prefer to visit properties on a daily basis, you are only able to do physical walk-throughs two or three times out of the week. Instead, you spend much of your time stuck in the office writing up the appraisals.

What if there was a way to reduce your paperwork tremendously, increase the amount of properties you appraised a week, and still maintain your standard of high accuracy; would you be interested? Of course you would! Thanks to an innovative new process, you can now outsource the writing and comp research required to complete an appraisal. Imagine the additional revenue you will be able to generate. To get started or receive more information simply send an email to Thank you for requesting more information. We are excited to show you how this opportunity can greatly benefit your business.

Our service allows you to increase the number of appraisals completed in a day, almost doubling your earnings!!!

Currently, your business probably runs something like this.

With our service, your business will run like this.

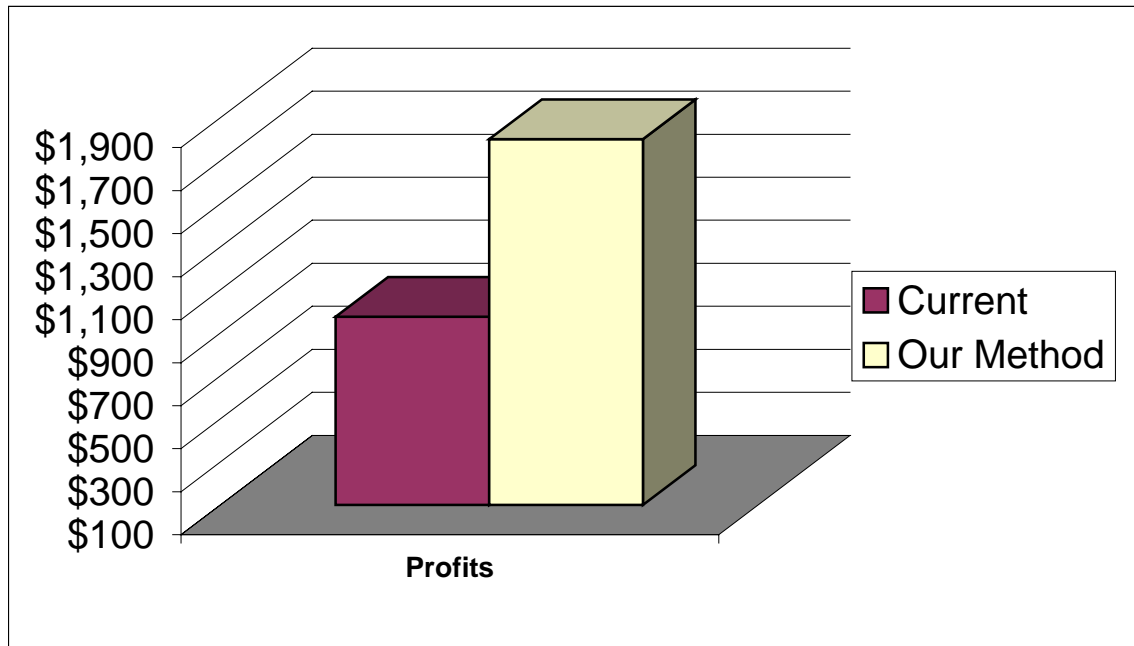

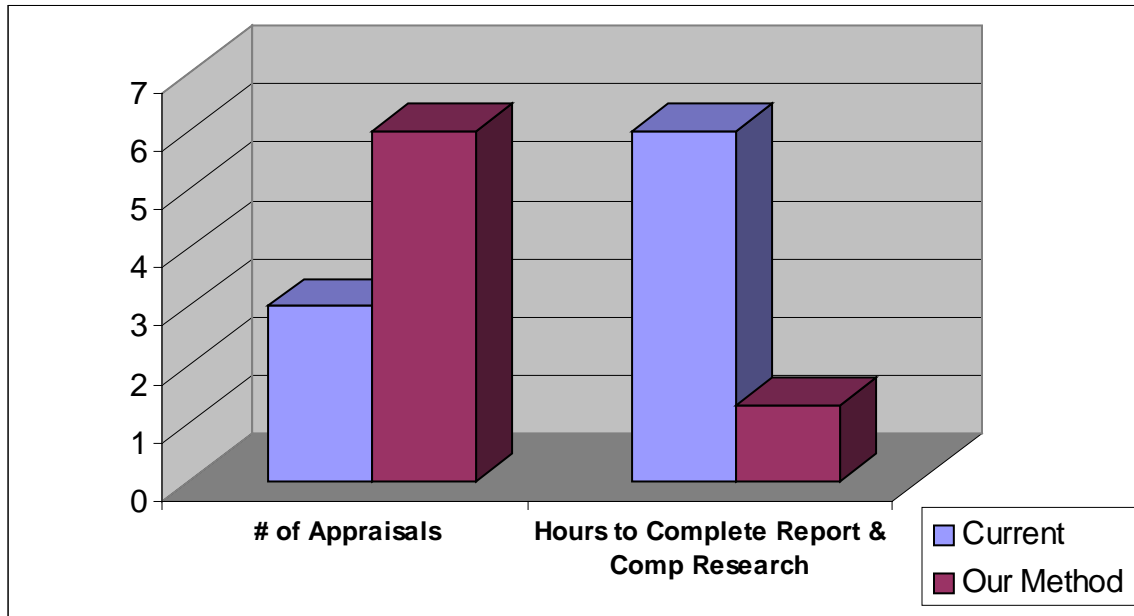

You will be able to complete more appraisals in less time. There will be no more putting off lender requests to compile reports. While you are walking properties for new appraisals, our team will fill in all of the pertinent information, and forward the documents to you. You can then finalize the reports from the previous day, and send the data and comp requests from the current day.

The days of losing appraisal opportunities because you are stuck in the office completing paperwork will be gone!

The graphs below will show how you're productivity and profits will increase!

By using this method you will spend 45 minutes on 3 reports instead of 6 hours. You can achieve these results with a minimum amount of expenditure. In fact, it will only cost $150 for us to process 6 appraisals. That leaves you with an $1800 profit!!!

By now you are probably wondering how you can start implementing this exciting new service.

Using our services is easy. Simply email us to begin immediately.

Please read through the following important information for our terms and conditions.

We charge $25 per appraisal report and $10 per comp research. However, these fees can be negotiated for high volume clients.

We will fill in the comps, property data and all other provided information. We will not make any final adjustments. You, the appraiser, will be responsible for finalizing all reports.

We must be provided with access to all websites needed to complete comp research, such as MLS, other local listings, and any other comp research site.

We have standardized templates that are used for completing the reports, however we would be happy to incorporate your personal template.

We invoice on a monthly basis. The invoice will be sent on the 30th of the month, and payment is expected by the 5th.

We only accept payments via PayPal.

If you still have questions, we would be happy to assist you. Please contact us at the email address below.
